

Sinclair broadcasting is clearly associated with the republican party. By broadcasting this so called documentary about john kerry, they are violating election laws. This is clearly a republican dirty trick. The airing of a story outlining the war in iraq was censured , and also the movie about ronald reagan was blocked from being aired. Republicans will stop at nothing especially now that G bush is behind in the polls.